

XM radio has filled the void created by regular commercial radio stations. I personally do not care to listen DJ's talk half the time and play less music. Some forget to give reports that are helpful to the motoring public. So, please let XM radio continue their superb programming and let the other commercial radio stations do their thing.

Thank-you,

A VERY satisfied XM subscriber.